JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

As stated during the teleconference held earlier today:

- Plaintiff's motion for default judgment is GRANTED as to liability only. The Court reserves judgment on damages.
- Plaintiff shall submit additional support related to damages by July 5, 2023. Defendant may respond as to damages only within one week of any submission being filed. As this Court has repeatedly explained, see ECF No. 33, a corporate entity may appear in federal court only through counsel, see Lattanzio v. COMTA, 481 F.3d 137, 140 (2d Cir. 2007) (per curiam). Any response by Defendant must therefore be filed by counsel admitted to practice in this Court. For avoidance of doubt: The Court will not accept or consider any submission unless it is made by counsel admitted to practice in this Court who enters a notice of appearance.

It is ORDERED that Plaintiff serve Defendant via both email (to Mr. Altenberg) and mail a copy of this Order within one business day. Within two business days, Plaintiff must file proof of such service on the docket.

SO ORDERED.
